A Celebration of Craft and Culture

Akaashi, meaning "reflection" or "illumination," is a collection that mirrors the grace and depth of Indian craftsmanship. From flowing Anarkalis and elegant kurtas to coordinated sets and statement kaftans, each piece is crafted using eco-friendly fabrics and traditional techniques passed down through generations.

Expect:

- Chanderi handloom, Zari silk, and cotton glaze fabrics

- Gold and silver Zari embroidery for a touch of opulence
- Soft pastels, rich jewel tones, and classic neutrals
- Flattering silhouettes that suit both festive and everyday wear

Whether you're dressing for a celebration or curating a refined daily look, Akaashi offers pieces that feel luxurious yet grounded.

Every garment in the Akaashi Collection is made-to-order, ensuring minimal waste and maximum attention to detail. Vinusto partners with certified handloom clusters across India, supporting over 200 artisans and preserving centuries-old weaving traditions.
